Manchester High School Art

Students from 4 schools in Adams County recently put over 200 pieces of their own art on display at the All County Art Show at West Union High School.

The annual show featured artwork by area schools for grades 7th - 12th.

"Each year our young artist get better and better. I'm always amazed at how creative and talented some of the students are in our area. The show is a great way to show off their work to their families and community," said Mrs. Crystal Roberts, Manchester High Schools art teacher.

For the March 27 show, Felicity Haag, a junior at Manchester High School & Ohio Valley

Career and Technical Center, created two Origami swans. "I used folded construction paper, or the method called Origami to create two swans. At first the technique was challenging, but after mastering the pattern and design of folding the paper, the process became easier." Felicity's Origami Swans received the second place Joan Wittenmyer McCoy Art Award in the 3-dimensional category.

Breanna O'Connell, also a junior at Manchester High School, received the honorable mention Joan Wittenmyer McCoy Art Award on her 2-D watercolor piece called "Not Your Average Girl." Breanna's sketchbook that presented a variation of her drawings, medium and styles, also earned her the third place Joan Wittenmyer McCoy Art Award in the 3-dimensional category. "I'm really happy my sketchbook received third place. I feel the work displays all my artistic abilities, including my style and my favorite medium, watercolor." Breanna had an abundant of artwork on display at the show. Her work can be viewed on her Instagram page, breaesthetic.art.

....and the Roaring 20's are back!

The 2019 Prom Committee chose "the Roaring 20s" as the prom theme. It was a "swinging" evening at the Limestone Center in Maysville, on the 27th of April.

On the morning of Thursday, April 25, the Georgetown Post of Highway Patrol Officers met with all who are planning to attend the prom to refresh memories of the effects of drinking, use of drugs, and texting while driving. As always, this is a mandatory assembly. Please be aware that it is the responsibility of the prom attendees to notify the employers, post-secondary/college instructors, CTC instructors, and parent that this is mandatory by the school.

The actual prom festivities began with the Grand March commencing at 5:00 in the MHS cafeteria. Photos were taken by photographer, Kevin Hoop. Then they were on to Lundy's at 601 Bernard Coughlin, Maysville, Kentucky. Dinner, catered by Caproni's was served at 7:00 pm. The mouthwatering menu was Tossed Garden Salad, Oven Baked Chicken, Garlic Smashed Potatoes, Country Style Green Beans, Dinner Rolls with Creamy Butter, Pound Cake with Berries, and beverages of Iced Tea, Lemonade and Water. Dancing to the music of DJ, Marci Schnider, and her troupe filled the night air with memories to cherish.

Entertainment was provided by Phil Dalton with Mind Blowing Magic. Phil has performed over 50 shows in 50 states. During his show, Phil split himself, escaped from a straight jacket and performed a vanishing act.

As the evening wound down, the crowning of junior class prince, Carl Ricketts and princess, Taylor Ogden and the Senior class king, Wesley Jones and queen, Kaitlyn Palmer were announced.

The ladies and gentlemen were dressed to impress.

Softball

The Manchester Lady Hounds Softball Team has had a great season so far this year. The girls have a winning record of 14-6 in the league and 7-5 in the SHAC. The games that they have lost, they've only beat themselves and are continuing to excel throughout the season.

They have had two losses to Pebbles, two to Fairfield, and one to Eastern. April 24th was senior night for the girls. They had a big crowd and played a great game. Due to inclement weather, the Lady Hounds game was stopped and will be finished on a later date. They were up 11-1 when it started storming. Madison Jones and Brooke Kennedy have both pitched perfect games this year. Madison Jones was close to pitching her second perfect game against Whiteoak. She struck out 13 of the 19 batters, that she faced to help the Lady Hounds come out on top. The girls have a tough week ahead of them, but are hoping to continue improving their record and get a sectional title this season.
