MHS Sports

Boys Baseball

The Manchester Greyhounds are 10-11 on the season. They played Western Latham April 20th where they were defeated 12-2. Next, they played Whiteoak and lost 11-1. The Hound defeated Fayetteville April 30th 4-2.

May 7th the boys played Felecity and lost 7-6. May 8th the boys played North Adams and were defeated 10-0. May 14th, in tournament play, the boys played Green. They were defeated 3-4. Unfortunately, the boys had a very rough season. Hopefully, they can regroup over the summer and improve their skills for next year.

Nathan Rife

Softball

Congratulations to the Manchester Lady Hounds Softball Team as they won our first Sectional Title since 2009. The Lady hounds defeated Green with a 10-3 win. Madison Jones and Brooke

Kennedy both pitched a great game and all of the girls bats were hot allowing the team to continue scoring.

After the game, the town put together a parade for the softball team to show their support. The softball team has a tough game ahead of them against Waterford this Thursday. If the softball team wins districts, they will then advance to state which has never been done in Manchester Softball history. The Lady Hounds softball record has only continued to improve, with an 19-7 record. The Lady Hounds played Waterford for the District Title on Thursday the 16th! Yasmin Lucas hit a home run. The game was tied 3-3 for awhile. Unfortunately, it was a 4-3 loss.
